LT. COL. DOUG OLLIVANT
TUESDAY FEB. 19, 1:30-3:30PM
WH 218

Lt. Col. Doug Ollivant, U.S. Army, has served multiple tours in Iraq as a close advisor to Gen. David Petraeus. A political scientist by training, Dr. Ollivant received his Ph.D. from IU in 2001. Prior to his service in Iraq, he taught political philosophy at the United States Military Academy in West Point, NY. Both as a soldier and a scholar, Lt. Col. Ollivant is uniquely placed to discuss issues of state and nation-building in Iraq, as well as to provide a discussion about issues related to democracy-assistance and its limits. Please join the IDC on Feb. 19 in Woodburn Hall 218 for an interesting discussion with Lt. Col. Ollivant.
